

Third Annual Symposium on Development and Globalization
November 2nd and 3rd, 2006
Columbia University

November 2nd
President's Room, The Faculty House
400 West 117th Street

November 3rd
Altschul Auditorium, 417 International Affairs Building
420 West 118th Street

Thursday November 2nd

2:00 –2:30 PM: Registration

2:30 –2:45 PM: Welcome and Introduction

Joseph Stiglitz, IGERT Principal Investigator and President of IPD

2:45 –3:30 PM: Joseph Stiglitz, IGERT Principal Investigator and President of IPD
“Globalization and Development”

3:30 –4:45 PM: Departments and Institutes at Columbia University

Joseph Stiglitz, IGERT Principal Investigator and President of IPD

Brendan O’Flaherty, Professor, Economics

Richard Parker, Professor, Sociomedical Sciences

Joshua Whitford, Assistant Professor, Sociology

Robert Beauregard, Visiting Professor, Urban Planning

Elliott Sclar, Professor, Urban Planning

Alfred Stepan, Director, Center for the Study of Democracy, Toleration, and Religion

Louise Rosen, Educational Programs Director, The Earth Institute

Leah Lubin, Assistant Director, Institute for Social and Economic Research and Policy (ISERP)

Mona Khalidi, Assistant Dean, School of International & Public Affairs (SIPA)

4:45 –6:00 PM: Reception co-sponsored by the Initiative for Policy Dialogue

Friday November 3rd

9:00 –9:30 AM: Breakfast

9:30 –10:45 AM Panel: Democratization, Political Economy, and Development

Moderator: Matt Winters, Ph.D. Candidate, Political Science

Guru Sethupathy, Ph.D. Candidate, Economics, “Industrial Policy and Trade in the Presence of Externalities”

M. Victoria Murillo, Associate Professor, Political Science and International Affairs, “Electoral Choices and Infrastructure Development”

Beth Harkavy, Ph.D. Candidate, Political Science, “Riots and Democratic Consolidation in South Africa”

Lincoln Mitchell, Assistant Professor in the Practice of International Politics, “Democracy Promotion After Bush”

Cyrus Samii, Ph.D. Student, Political Science, “Civil War and Democratic Participation in Burundi: A Micro-level Study”

10:45 AM –12:00 PM Panel: Health and Development

Moderator: Ashley Fox, Ph.D. Student, Sociomedical Sciences

Ben Meier, Ph.D. Candidate, Sociomedical Sciences, “Advancing Health Rights in Globalized World”

Anne Paxton, Assistant Professor of Clinical Epidemiology, and Population and Family Health, “Scaling up Responses to Maternal Morbidity”

Shubha Chakravarty, Ph.D. Candidate, Economics, “AIDS, Nutrition, and Household Welfare in Kenya”

Richard Parker, Professor, Sociomedical Sciences, “HIV Treatment Access, Public Health and Social Justice”

Ellen Stiefvater, Ph.D. Student, Sociomedical Sciences, “Health Sovereignty, Health Systems, and the Goal of Universal Access to Antiretroviral Therapy”

12:00 –1:30 PM: Lunch Break

1:30 –2:45 PM Panel: Environment, Natural Disaster, and Development

Moderator: Jesse Anttila-Hughes, Ph.D. Student, Sustainable Development

Lily Parshall, Ph.D. Student, Sustainable Development, “Designing Tree-planting Programs to Address Urban Climate Impacts”

John Mutter, Professor, Earth and Environmental Sciences, “Natural Disasters and Human Development”

Cynthia Rosenzweig, Adjunct Professor, Environmental Science, “Impacts of Climate Change”

Ngoni Munemo, Ph.D. Candidate, Political Science, “Politics During Dry Times: Insights From Botswana & Zimbabwe”

2:45 –3:15 PM: Coffee Break

3:15 –5:00 PM Panel: Current Issues in Development

Moderator: Shari Spiegel, Managing Director, Initiative for Policy Dialogue

Thomas Pogge, Professor, Political Science, “MGD1 and the Official Poverty Statistics: Progress by Gimmickry”

Katharina Pistor, Professor, Law, “The Organization & Function of Law in Comparative Perspective”

Miguel Urquiola, Assistant Professor, SIPA and Economics, “Improving Education in Developing Countries”

Mahmood Mamdani, Professor, Government and Anthropology, “Colonialism, Customary Law and Political Identity: A Comparative Perspective”

Sharyn O'Halloran, Professor, Politics (SIPA), “WTO decision making and domestic trade policy”

Joseph Stiglitz, IGERT Principal Investigator and President of IPD, “Capital Market Liberalization”

5:00 –5:30 PM Closing Remarks: Joseph Stiglitz